

Internship with Rocky Mountain CTN

Rocky Mountain CTN is pleased to announce the availability of an internship in our Production Department. We are looking for hard working interns who are interested in a non-paid learning opportunity, where they can extend their television broadcasting education beyond the classroom.

During this internship, you will gain an understanding of the planning and the procedures that go into creating Media content.

You will be involved with:

- Organizing and setting up in-field and/or in-studio shoots.
- Assisting in or directing these shoots.
- Editing program segments.
- Assisting show producer with all aspects of production.
- Assisting with various studio activities.

Hours:

A commitment of at least 8-10 hours per week is required. You must have the availability to work normal weekday hours. Duration: 3-5 months according to interns schedule availability.

COMPENSATION: This position is unpaid. Qualifications:

- Some previous shooting & editing experience is preferred
- Good communication skills
- Ability to complete projects by deadline
- Ability to learn things quickly
- A positive attitude and enthusiasm for learning

To Apply Please:

Complete the online internship application form.

Persons participating in the Rocky Mountain CTN production internship need to understand that no guarantees are given for future employment. RMCTN may terminate internship at any time. If an intern needs to terminate the internship earlier than agreed upon, we would ask for a 2-week notice.
